

revelation 1 - the things you have seen

Disclaimer again

Road to Revelation serves as more academic introduction. Book has it's own intro. Away we go!

1:1

- vocab revelation - exposure and explanation
- of - not present in the text. Gramatically could be "about" Jesus or "from" Jesus, or both.
- which God gave Him - if Jesus is God, and He is, does he lack things that the Father and the Spirit have? Can He learn?
 - The nature of Jesus.
 - Pre-incatnation - In the same spiritual, supernatural state as the Father and the Holy Spirit.
 - Incarnation - the Son left whatever state He was in before His birth, never to return to it.
 - 100%God and 100% human.
 - He grew up as a child, learned things, same as us.
 - Philippians 2, set asside His access to His divinity, functioned as the most Spirit-filled human.
 - Super-incarnation - Resurrected, glorified body. Still in that form today.
 - Jesus again doing the will of His Father.
- vocab show - present
- vocab servants - bond-slaves
- vocab shortly - suddently and speedily, like a drag race
- vocab signified - to signal, like a turn signal
- vocab angel - context: a messenger, human or otherwise

1:2

- vocab witness - verb: to give testimony
- vocab testimony - noun; the testimony itself

1:3

- One of seven blessings in the book. Book full of sevens.
- reading, hearing, literacy, copy availability
- vocab keep - a warden, to watch, guard, and protect.
- vocab near - within reach, at hand

1:4

- The only seven churches? No, just the ones that have been selected for a purpose.
- grace and peace
- identity - the Father, the HS

1:5

- identity - the Son

1:9 Patos slide

1:11 Map slide

1:19 The apparent outline for the book

1:20

- identity - seven lamp stands
- identity - stars

Wrap up

The Father wants us to know.

- He wants us to know His plan. Plan for salvation, eternity.
- He wants us to know His Son. What is needed to be a part of this.
- He wants us to know Him. Need to know the plan to know the Son to know the Father. John 14:6.
- Do you?